Aloha Friend,

Tomorrow is Election Day! Whether you want to schedule time before work to vote or drop off your mail-in ballot on your way home, it's not too late for you to make a plan to vote. You can find your polling location here and a copy of your sample ballots here.

MAKE A PLAN TO VOTE

Vote on Nov 6th → Pick a Time to Vote → Find Your Polling Location → Study your Ballot → Bring Proper ID → Plan Your Transportation → Bring a Friend → Cast Your Vote

If you are not a registered voter, you can register at your voting location based on your residential address as long as you are a U.S. Citizen, a resident of the State of Hawai'i, and at least 18 years of age.

So make a plan to vote, and make sure your friends and family have a plan too!

It is crucial that you participate in our democracy because it will truly have an impact on our state. Our lead in the polls will mean nothing if voters like you don't show up on Election Day. So, Friend, please make a plan to vote and help Team Ige Green finish what we started.

Whether you already took advantage of early voting or plan to vote tomorrow, November 6th, we hope you vote for Governor David Ige and Dr. Josh Green.

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
