Aloha Friend,

Martin Luther King, Jr.'s immortal "I Have a Dream" speech is a moment in history that still resonates with people all over the world, especially in a political climate where injustice and inequality are still present in our country.

Governor Ige has always led with the values of equality and justice that Martin Luther King, Jr. preached, leading with the spirit of Aloha and ensuring a better future for Hawai'i. Under Governor Ige's leadership, Hawai'i sets the precedent for the country on standing up for what is right and for what we believe in.

"I want to encourage all our citizens, as we celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., to ask themselves how we can work to make our communities stronger for everyone and what we can do as individuals to make someone's life better."

GOVERNOR DAVID IGE

From rejecting the Trump Administration's hateful agenda to being on the frontlines for environmental policies and fighting for working families, Governor Ige has always presented common-sense solutions to issues plaguing our society and continues to put the people of Hawai'i first.

Governor Ige continues to advocate for us by doing the right things for the right reasons and strives to lead by example just as Martin Luther King, Jr. did for the betterment of this country.

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
