Aloha Friend,

Today is National POW/MIA Recognition Day and we recognize and honor all prisoners of war and missing in action personnel. These military members sacrificed their lives and freedoms as they courageously fought for our country. We express our deepest gratitude and support for them and their loved ones and wholeheartedly reaffirm the message, "You are not forgotten."

As the son of a veteran, Governor Ige knows the sacrifices made by those brave men and women who served our country. Today, we would like to honor and commemorate all those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

This POW/MIA recognition day, we honor:

- USAF 1st Lt. David Anthony Lum
- USMC 1st Lt. John Robert Peacock II
- USAF SSG Klaus Jürgen Bingham
- USAF SGT Leonard Masayon Tadios
- USAF SrA Ronald Kazuo Miyazaki
- USAF CPL Richard D. Martin
- John R. Tavares

We encourage those who are able, to visit the Eternal Flame located across from the Hawai'i State Capitol – built to commemorate those who perished from the attack at Pearl Harbor and is now dedicated to all the brave men and women who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States.

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
