Aloha Friend,

It's with a light and humorous message that I share my first email of the general election campaign. After the Primary, we wanted everyone to enjoy a little break from our Ige for Governor emails before we head into full swing for the General.

I hope you will enjoy this article by columnist Denby Fawcett about my childhood friend and that it brings you a few laughs and memories of your high school or college days.

David has always been a friend to look up to and will carry these traits into serving as our next Governor as he continues to work to earn your trust and vote.

Please enjoy!
