Aloha,

With 12 days until General Election day, the Honolulu Star-Advertiser has released its latest poll results. We are very encouraged by the numbers showing David ahead by 12 percentage points but please remember, this is just a snapshot in time and the only poll that counts is the one on November 4th. Until then anything can happen, so please keep up your hard work and don't let David's momentum slow. Please continue reminding your family, friends, neighbors and co-workers to vote - absentee, walk-in, or at the polls on November 4. David and Shan need us to not let up, and sprint all the way to the finish line!
