Aloha Friend,

Congratulations to the Class of 2018! Your hard work and dedication has brought you to this moment of celebration. Whether you've worked multiple jobs while carrying a full course load or have had to balance academics with caring for children or family members, you all have stories of how you got here. No matter what your future plans are, be true to your personal values, follow your passions, and you will make Hawai'i proud.

No one realizes their dreams alone. That's why Governor Ige has invested in Hawai'i's most important resource, it's people, to build an innovation economy through education. He has empowered schools, faculty and staff to integrate an improved curriculum to enhance student engagement and provide complete and meaningful direction for career options and future leadership.

Team David Ige extends our best wishes to all graduates!
