Trusted Leadership for Hawai'i

Aloha Friend --

Yesterday marked the opening day of the 2014 State legislature at the Hawaii State Capitol. During the opening day ceremonies, the Hawaii State Senate took time to honor the past as this year we celebrate the 55th anniversary of statehood. Former lawmakers joined us on the floor of the Senate and were recognized for their service to our State.

While each session I have served in has been special, this one is especially important.
 This will be my last session serving as State Senator.

Over the last 28 years of service to the people of Hawai'i, I have had the opportunity to fight for my convictions and work to make sure that government was working for the people. With that mindset, I leave the Senate to pursue the Governorship of Hawai'i. And, as your Governor, the same pillars that led my political conscience in the Legislature - inclusion, providing opportunity and doing the right thing - would guide my Administration to move our State back on track.

Please join me in wishing the legislature good luck on a successful session in 2014 as we celebrate the 55th anniversary of statehood.

Mahalo,

David
