Aloha Friend,

The latest polling numbers are in -- and the news is good for Team Ige! Civil Beat's poll, released yesterday, shows our race is within single digits.

With a significant number of undecided voters, this is very much a competitive race. That's why Team Ige is working hard every day to share the Governor's leadership record with as many voters as possible between now and August 11. But Friend, the reality is that door literature for our canvassers, snacks for our volunteers, and yard signs for our supporters all cost money. That's why we're asking everyone on this list to please chip in $10, $25, or $50 today to help us build momentum toward Election Day. Please, Friend, can you help?

Our governor prefers working quietly to improve our state. The results have been outstanding with a clear and lengthy list of accomplishments. His record of leadership is well-defined: homelessness is down, the employment rate is up, and we are finally back on track making critical investments in our public infrastructure.

Friend, will you chip in today so we can reach voters with our message?
