Aloha Friend,

Today, we wanted to wish our dad -- and all the fathers and father-figures in Hawai'i -- a happy Fathers' Day. We celebrate their love and commitment to us, our families, and our broader communities.

From attending orchestra concerts to refereeing soccer matches, he made sure we had every opportunity to pursue our dreams and was there to support us every step of the way.

Happy Fathers' Day

From Team Ige!

Although a lot has changed over the years, our dad has always been a constant force. One of Amy's favorite memories with our dad comes from a few nights before her wedding. Despite how hectic that week was, Amy and our dad took a step back for a dance lesson. Through the spins and sways to one of her favorite childhood songs, she was reminded that our dad would always be there for us.

Our Dad also shared with us the memories of his own father, fondly remembering fishing at Kahe Point, and picking oysters and clams in Pearl Harbor. Our grandpa was a role model for our dad, and our dad has told us that even though his family didn't have much, he didn't know it because of our grandpa's love and support.

But it goes beyond all that. It's hard to put into words the profound influence our Dad has on us. It's the things he's taught us by example—integrity, hard work, and thoughtful decision making. We strive to be like him.

We know how much of an impact fathers can have -- so today, we honor and thank our dad -- and we wish you and your families a happy Fathers' Day!

Mahalo,

Lauren, Matt, and Amy
