Aloha Friend,

Thirteen months ago, when I announced I was running for governor, very few would have predicted we would be here tonight.

But you all believed in our campaign -- our vision that the people could, and would, put the state back on the right course.

We would not be where we are today without your energy and support. It is that simple. This was a true grassroots effort.

You waved signs or put them in your yards. You talked with friends and loved ones about our campaign. You came into our headquarters and called strangers across the islands and asked them for their support.

I hope you are as proud of the work you did as I am. Please enjoy tonight and get ready to do it again November 4.

Warmest mahalo,
David
