From the Ground

"Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there."
 ~ Will Rogers

Aloha Friend,

Primary Election Day is just five days away and your hard work, commitment, and sacrifices have put David in good position to become the Democratic Party's nominee to be Governor. Recent polling results continue to be good, but always remember that the only poll that counts is the result of the election.

This campaign is far from being over. There are many lessons from the past (e.g., Cayetano vs. Lingle; Bainum vs. Hannemann), so we should never take anything for granted. Please keep working hard through Election Day by:

- Talking to your family and friends and reminding them to vote
- Sign-waving (we're going out twice a day this week, so please check the sign-waving schedule and note the change of location for our afternoon sign-waving on Wednesday, August 6 to the Nimitz Shopping Center area)
- Canvassing (see below)
- Phone banking (see below)
- Putting up signs and banners
- Wearing your David Ige for Governor T-shirts wherever you go and
- Talking to your family and friends and reminding them to vote (worth repeating!)

Now is when we need your kokua the most. Stay focused, finish the job, and let's put this one away.
