Please Read Carefully

Contributions to a Hawaii Gubernatorial Race

Hawaii law governs campaign contributions for state and local races.

- For the gubernatorial race, aggregate contributions cannot exceed $6,000 per person during an election period. The election period for the 2018 gubernatorial race is Nov. 5, 2014 through Nov. 6, 2018.
- Contributions from individuals must be made from their own funds, and not funds from another.
- Anonymous contributions are prohibited under the campaign spending law.
- Contributions from state and county contractors are prohibited.
- Contributions from foreign nationals are prohibited.

Consult an attorney or the Hawaii Campaign Spending Commission for further clarification.
For more information, please review the Hawaii campaign spending law and administrative rules at <http://hawaii.gov/campaign>
