Aloha Friend,

Team Ige celebrates King Kamehameha Day to honor the memory of Kamehameha the Great. On this day, we reflect on how our first leader conquered to end conflict, bringing peace to all native Hawaiians throughout our island chain. King Kamehameha's legacy is one of strength, diplomacy, and unwavering leadership.

Kamehameha Day provides a gentle reminder of the importance of respecting, preserving, and perpetuating Hawaiian culture. Throughout the day, we celebrate him through festivals, parades, and draping of lei, all of which showcase the rich cultural traditions present in Hawai'i. Today we encourage you, Katie, to engage with your community and to share the Aloha spirit as a reminder of what this holiday is all about. Governor Ige will be doing the same!

Team Ige wishes you a happy and safe King Kamehameha Day!

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
