Aloha Friend,

Team Ige wants to recognize all the fathers, including Governor Ige and the father-figures in Hawai'i on this holiday. This Father's Day, we express sincere gratitude for their love, commitment, and sacrifices they make for our families and for our community.

Governor Ige was one of six siblings, and he has said that even though his family did not have much, he never knew it because of his father's love and support. Since leading Hawai'i, he sees the impact that father figures have across the state, and even as a father of three children, he experiences firsthand how vital this role contributes to the community. So today, Team Ige wishes your families a happy Father's Day!

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
