Trusted Leadership for Hawai'i

Friend --

As I've said, my election is about earning your vote and Hawai'i's trust to serve as your Governor. I do not want to be elected through headline-making sound bites and expensively produced advertising and polls to gauge what the voters want to hear.

The governor's office -- like our beautiful state -- must not be purchased.

As one of my Kauai supporters told me yesterday, "We elect the people who work for the people." Throughout my 29 years in the Hawai'i Legislature I've worked for you. I'm asking for your support so I can continue to work for the people of Hawai'i as the people's governor.

To do that, I ask you to pitch in financially because our opponent has millions and millions of dollars to spend this election. I don't have that, but I do have you.

Please donate $25, $50 or whatever you can to send a message to our opponent and his special-interest friends.

Last week, I gave my last speech on the floor of the Hawai'i State Senate after serving the public for 29 years in office. With the legislative session over, I am now working full time to seek your support. Ours is a real grassroots community building effort to put the people back in charge.

The tide is turning. The momentum is growing. The grassroots support is expanding.

Mahalo for your support,
 David Ige
