Aloha,

On behalf of my family, I would like to extend our deepest thanks to everyone on every island that we met during our campaign in these last 16 months. You are what inspired us to keep working hard every day leading up to our victory in the primary election, and then up to Election Day.

Today we feel we have family across the state.

I have gained a deeper respect for our diverse cultures and communities. Our core campaign values of being open and honest in our communication, being respectful of all people and all points of view, and doing the right thing the right way, will continue as we work together to make Hawaii a better place for all of us.

Now it is time for us to move ahead as one community, one state and one family with the goal of making Hawaii's economy, our educational system and our environment better for all of us today, and for future generations.

I am proud to have earned your vote, and will work for all the people of Hawaii. Soon I will be hosting mahalo gatherings on each island. Please watch our website for the dates, and I hope you will join me.

I humbly thank you for your trust,

David Ige
