Trusted Leadership for Hawai'i

Aloha Friend --

Earlier today, the Civil Beat released the results of their latest poll -- we are tied among Democrats likely to vote in the upcoming primary election on August 9th!

This is more great news for our campaign, and just another indication that voters are looking for new leadership to make our state stronger. The latest poll results validate what I've heard over and over as I travel the state--people are ready for a change and want a more inclusive approach to governing and the decision making process.

As we head toward election day, I am working very hard to earn the trust of Hawaii and introduce myself to as many voters as I can to share my vision of inclusiveness for the state.

This will be a long and tough campaign and I cannot do it alone. We need the support of people like you to move Hawaii forward together, and I would like to ask for your help in my efforts to meet more voters. If you would like me to attend an event or coffee, please email us at info@davidige.org or reply directly to this email with your contact information and the event details.

Mahalo for your support,

David
