Aloha Friend,

The people of Hawai'i deserve transparency in their government -- not backroom manipulations of political power. Governor Ige knows that, but unfortunately, our opponent just doesn't seem to get it. She prefers conducting business behind closed doors.

Last week, four elected officials signed an invitation to our opponent's fundraiser -- possibly in violation of our state's Fair Treatment law. They are, of course, entitled to their personal opinions. Governor Ige understands that when one refuses to do the backroom deals there is a natural reaction to remove the one who refuses to deal. But this isn't what true leadership looks like.

This election is about character. The fight is about Governor Ige's vision of open, transparent government versus those would return to the old days of doing things and the attendant backroom dealings. The people of Hawai'i deserve much, much more.

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
