Trusted Leadership for Hawai'i

Aloha Friend --

Mahalo to everyone for their kind words to our family on Facebook and Twitter supporting Amy on her graduation. Like the thousands of families who gathered at University of Hawai'i campuses to support their loved ones, we are so proud of Amy's accomplishment. I especially want to thank my supporters who took time to wave signs outside the University of Hawai'i Oahu to congratulate the new graduates!

This past weekend has reminded me of two important reasons I am running for Governor. We need a Governor who will make education a top priority and get the right legislation passed. Our children need a high quality education from their earliest years all the way through college. Through my 29 years in the legislature I have worked hard to support education across Hawai'i and I will continue that work as Governor.

Contribute $10, $15, $25 or more to the campaign today to help us provide the wonderful future that these graduates and all of Hawai'i's young people deserve.

As all of our children finish their academic careers, we need to ensure our economy is strong, so our children can return to live and work here in Hawai'i. This is another priority of my campaign for Governor.

With your help we will continue to make Hawai'i great. Our family is humbled by your continued support.

Mahalo from the Ige 'Ohana,
David Ige
