As you may already know, on November 4 the Democratic Party of Hawaii is hosting an Election Night gathering for all Democratic candidates and their supporters at the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii's Mānoa Grand Ballroom, starting at 6:00 p.m. Paid parking is available at JCCH. Complimentary parking for David Ige for Governor 2014 volunteers will be available in our campaign headquarters' parking lot (at least one person in your car must be wearing a blue or white David Ige t-shirt).

After listening to open and honest communications of all views, we've decided to keep headquarters open throughout Election Night. As the leaders of the Democratic Party ticket, David and Shan will attend the JCCH event, and I strongly encourage everyone to go to JCCH in your David Ige T-shirt to show support for our candidate, especially before the first and second printouts.

Please feel free to come back to HQ to relax and escape the crowd. HQ will open as usual at 10:00 a.m. and remain open until at least midnight. We are not planning anything formal for HQ, and we ask that you respect the campaign's policy of no alcohol inside HQ.

I would like to thank everyone of you who has worked so hard to support David ever since he announced his candidacy on July 9, 2013. It's been a long and sometimes tough road, but we traveled it together. Let's celebrate the journey together on November 4!
