Aloha Friend,

This morning, we lost our beloved Senator Daniel Akaka. Senator Akaka lived a life of service and aloha, and Hawai'i benefited in countless ways from his tireless efforts.

An educator and a humble statesman for more than three and a half decades, Senator Akaka dedicated his life to the people of Hawai'i. He was the first Native Hawaiian to serve in the Senate.

Throughout his life, he was a strong advocate not only for Hawaiians but for all the people of our state, regardless of ethnicity. He fought for federal funding for Native Hawaiian education, for medical and educational benefits for our veterans, and for many other social service programs. He was also instrumental in ensuring members of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team received the Medal of Honor.

As the people of Hawai'i mourn the loss of one of our most respected leaders, Governor Ige and Team Ige send our deepest condolences to the entire Akaka 'Ohana.

Mahalo,

Team David Ige
