Trusted Leadership for Hawai'i

Dear Friend --

I am pleased to let you know that both the governor and the State Democratic Party Executive Committee have agreed with my call for fairness allowing me to speak from the floor of the state Democratic convention, not breaking from traditions of previous years. This election is about hearing everyone's voices, positions and issues, and moving the party and the state forward.

You and I cannot be ignored. Just look at this quote in today's Star-Advertiser article:

"There is a feeling that in this particular case, Ige is a more viable candidate as an opponent of the governor at this point in time," said Dante Carpenter, the party's chairman.

Our campaign's momentum is growing, with two grassroots rallies on Oahu last week and rallies or fundraisers planned for Hawaii, Maui and Kauai. We have island coordinators in action on Molokai and Lanai, as well!

Volunteer and join our true grassroots campaign of community building through friends, family and acquaintances.

This campaign is about winning the opportunity to represent you as the top leader, the governor, of our great state of Hawaii. I want to win your vote on character and ability. I will not buy your vote through extensive paid advertising and paid polling.

Don't get me wrong, we do need to raise more money to get our word out. But we don't need millions and millions of dollars. In our first email addressing fundraising, we reached a quarter of our small goal this month within hours.

If you can pitch in $10, $20 or $50 -- anything you can -- we will win this the Hawaii way.

Mahalo for your support,

David Ige
