Aloha Friend,

Together, we have made history.

People told me I was crazy for giving up my seat in the state Senate. They reminded me that no incumbent governor had ever lost a primary election.

That changed tonight. With our campaign's primary election victory we have proven that the people -- not special interests -- are in charge of Hawai'i's future.

We have more work to do, of course. Tonight was just the beginning. We must set our sights on the general election on November 4.

Mahalo for your support and the trust you have placed in me.

Together, let's move Hawai'i forward.

David
