Aloha,

Over the past 17 months, and with the help of so many people, I have been traveling across the state and listening to your concerns.

We have run a clean, respectful campaign because we are running to establish a new kind of leadership for Hawaii. I know how hard many families struggle, as I myself grew up in a working-class family along with my five brothers, and the last thing folks need right now is half-truths politicking.

We will campaign through Election Day, Tuesday, November 4 with integrity and with only you in mind. And when we win, we will govern that way, too.

If you can pitch in $25 or more to our effort, it will help us spread our campaign message of better schools, better jobs, and a better Hawai'i, and combat the negative advertising being run against us and paid for by national interests.

Thank you for a great campaign so far,

David Ige
