Aloha Friend,

In the HPR forum this evening, David reinforced why he is the clear choice to lead Hawaii for the next four years. His command of the issues, especially addressing homelessness, increasing affordable housing, and creating job opportunities so children such as his own three can come home to Hawaii, are a clear indicator that he will work hard to improve the conditions in our state.

From the discussion that took place, it's obvious that the Ige-Tsutsui Democratic ticket will be the best choice for voters on November 4th.

David has agreed to 13 more debates and forums to give the public many opportunities to hear his positions. Click here for the campaign event schedule.

If you can make a small contribution of $10, $25 or more to support David's travel costs across the state to participate in these debates and forums, please click here.

Make Sure to Tune In,
