Friend --

Aloha,

By now, I hope you have received our email sharing that we are ahead in the latest Civil Beat poll by 48% to 37%. This is great news and it's your efforts in sign-waving, phone banking, canvassing, coffees, donating, registering voters and telling friends about my campaign that has given us the lead in this most recent poll. For this, I want to personally thank you.

The election is now just 8 weeks away and I ask you to keep building the momentum and growing our community building grassroots movement by continuing to do all the good things you've done so far. Let's go the extra mile, speak to one more friend, make one more call, give $10 more.

In the coming weeks, we have a lot of exciting events and I encourage you to get involved. It's hard work, but let's have fun. Watch your email, Facebook, and our website (www.davidige.org) for information. On Oahu, come down to the headquarters to get yard signs, friend-to-friend cards, and bumper stickers (or volunteers like you will deliver). On the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Molokai, Lanai and Kauai, reach out to my island coordinators. Across the state, you'll meet an enthusiastic group of volunteers!

In closing, let me thank you again for all your warm wishes and support to this point. It's because of people like you that the campaign is where it is today. The job isn't done yet and we still need your effort and contributions to be the first across the finish line.

Together, we will win this election for a better Hawaii. Let's earn every vote, together.

Mahalo,

David Ige
